

Open Source Software and Copyright: Legal and Business Considerations for Government Use

Monday, July 26, 2010 9:00 AM-4:00 PM
Library of Congress, Madison Building, Mumford
Room (6th floor)

CO-SPONSORED BY
CENDI, the Law Library of Congress, and the Federal Library and Information Center Committee

Preliminary Program

8:30-9:00	Registration and Continental Breakfast
9:00-9:15	Welcome -- Roberta Shaffer, Law Librarian of Congress Announcements -- Christopher Cole, Co-Chair CENDI Copyright Working Group, National Agricultural Library
9:15-10:00	Computer Software Copyright Basics -- Rob Kasunic, US Copyright Office
10:00-10:45	Open Source Software Basics -- David A. Wheeler, Institute for Defense Analyses
10:45-11:00	Break
11:00-12:30	U.S. Government Software Acquisitions Policies -- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • FAR -- Gary Borda, NASA, Office of General Counsel • DFARS -- Vicki Allums, Defense Information System Agency, Office of General Counsel
12:30-1:30	Lunch [on your own]
1:30-2:30	Distributing Government Software; Integrating into OSS -- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hope O'Keeffe, Library of Congress, Office of General Counsel • Gary Borda, NASA, Office of General Counsel

2:30-3:30	Using OSS Software for Government Purposes -- <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tom Morton, Forge.mil Chief Engineer• Richard A. Lambert, Intellectual Property Consultant
3:30-4:00	Vision/Way Ahead Audience Discussion and Q&A Moderator: Daniel Risacher, Associate Director, Enterprise Services and Integration, NII/DoD-CIO